Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 23 June 2003 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The rejection made in paper number 3 over Showa Denko KK JP 62096408 under 35 U.S.C. §102(b) is maintained and is hereby repeated.

Showa Denko KK clearly teaches ascorbyl 2 phosphate or its salts (such as Na⁺, K⁺ and Ca⁺⁺) and further comprising a polymer, frequently used as dental/denture adhesives. It is noted that the reference does not teach that the composition can be used in the manner instantly claimed, as a dental adhesive, however, the intended use of the claimed composition does not patentably distinguish the composition, per se, since such undisclosed use is inherent in the reference composition. In order to be limiting, the intended use must create a structural difference between the claimed composition and the prior art composition. In the instant case, the intended use does not create a structural difference, thus the intended use is not limiting.

Rejection of claims 1-4 and 7-10 over Lion Corp JP 8099849 (BL) under 35 U.S.C. §102(b) is no longer maintained in view of the amendment.

Rejection of claims 1-6 over Lion Corp WO 2002 02124 A1 under 35 U.S.C. §102(b) is no longer maintained in view of the amendment.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
